

Crime and Punishment

Fyodor Dostoevsky's classic, Crime and Punishment, tells the story of Raskolnikov, a destitute and desperate former student, who wanders through the slums of St Petersburg and commits a random murder without remorse or regret. He imagines himself to be a great man, a Napoleon: acting for a higher purpose beyond conventional moral law. But as he embarks on a dangerous game of cat and mouse with a suspicious police investigator, Raskolnikov is pursued by the growing voice of his conscience and finds the noose of his own guilt tightening around his neck. Only Sonya, a downtrodden prostitute, can offer the chance of redemption.

A new translation captures the painful backdrop of Dostoevsky's classic: the poverty, crime, and violence that shaped much of everyday life in St. Petersburg.
