

Nature Boy: a novel

Escaping a family vacation in a little town east of Yosemite, Skye Pelter sings Nature Boy in a karaoke bar and triggers the adventure of a lifetime. Given an open calendar, a stealth 86 Toyota pickup truck and cold, hard cash, the only limits are his imagination and the Interstate Highway System. A wild, free-wheeling novel from the author of The Popcorn Girl and Operaville. A stylistic cross between Tom Robbins, Kerouac, and Wes Anderson at their finest. Vaughn writes with a wit, tenderness, cerebral intensity and outright raunchy humor which fast becomes addictive. --CSLowe
