

Underfoot In Show Business

Its a book about show business, where fame is the stock in trade. Each year there are hundreds of stagestruck kids arrive in New York determined to crash the theatre, firmly convinced theyre destined to be famous Broadway stars or playwrights.

The show opened in Boston to fair notices not nearly as good as those Boston had given some of our other flops and certainly not notices you In this tongue-in-cheek autobiography, Helene Hanff, author of 84, Charing Cross Road describes her life as an unsuccessful BroadwayEditorial Reviews.
